

Lisa Oduor-Noah

Kenyan singer-songwriter and producer Lisa Oduor-Noah was introduced to music through her family's love for different musical genres which fed into her a deep love for music and passion for performance.

The soulful, silky-voiced singer boasts a resume filled with performances on stages such as Coke Studio Africa, The Global Citizen, the Shanghai Jazz festival, Australia (Phoenix Central Park, Nexus Arts, Johnston St. Jazz, Eastside 89.7 FM), just to name but a few. There have also been partnerships with famous local acts such as Blinky Bill, Kato Change, June Gachui, and Sauti Sol.

A Berklee College of Music graduate, Oduor-Noah hopes that through her performances, she can be an agent of hope, healing, and restoration while creating wholehearted moments of connection.

In addition to this, she desires to bring higher quality music education to the world as an educator in forums like Afreative and perFORM Music Incubator and be an aide to better emotional and mental health awareness in the entertainment industry through platforms like Engage Talks.
